GOULD JOINS MMM DESIGN GROUP AS SENIOR LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT

NORFOLK, Va—Taylor Gould, CLA (Certified Landscape Architect) has joined MMM Design Group as a senior landscape architect.

Taylor, a political science and environmental issues graduate (B.A.) of Longwood University and a landscape architecture graduate (M.LA) of Kansas State University, joined the firm this March. He brings MMM over 10 years of experience that includes the site design, master planning, comprehensive design, landscape design, and construction documentation, specifically for recreational and park projects.

Most recently, he served as a project manager for Arentz Landscape Architects, LLC in Washington, D.C. Previously, he worked as a project manager for Earth Design Associates, Inc. in Casanova, Va. and Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kan.

MMM Design Group is a full-service architecture, engineering and planning firm headquartered in Norfolk. The firm's multi-disciplined team of professional architects, interior designers, landscape architects, planners, civil, structural, electrical and mechanical engineers has experience with projects in the fields of higher education, defense, homeland security, criminal justice, transportation, recreation, environmental protection, and historic restoration.
