MMM DESIGN GROUP RECOGNIZED BY LOYAL E. HORTON DINING AWARDS

Norfolk, Va.—MMM Design Group is proud to announce the selection of its recently completed project, Dietrick Dining Hall, for the 2005 Loyal E. Horton Silver Dining Award of the National Association of College and University Food Services.

MMM provided full architecture and engineering design services for the renovation of this 93,000-sq ft dining hall for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. The design included an “all-you-care-to-eat” concept with eight shops, including Mexican, Pan Asian, Brazilian, and deli choices. In addition, the 1,066-person facility features a contemporary, state-of-the-art interior design.

“MMM prides itself on providing the best design services possible to our clients and we are proud to be recognized with this honor,” said George Wilson, PE, president of MMM.

MMM Design Group is a full-service architecture, engineering and planning firm headquartered in Norfolk. The firm’s multi-disciplined team of professional architects, interior designers, landscape architects, planners, civil, structural, electrical and mechanical engineers has experience with projects in the fields of higher education, defense, homeland security, criminal justice, transportation, recreation, environmental protection, and historic restoration.
